Hospitality Volunteers

For those who'd like to help out but don't want to be in on the "horsey" side of things, we're always looking for cheerful volunteers for the hospitality side of things.

Hospitality positions include ticket booth, the souvenir stand and some food handling locations, including helping out with meals in the volunteer room. No horse experience required!

We do not have software to allow seat selection.

If you have special access needs, please include that in the comments section on the ticket order page.

If you and your friends wish to sit together, the orders should be placed together.
